I understand that my child must come to training and matches in proper sportswear and proper trainers (ie no Converse/Vans type casual shoe), long hair tied back and no jewellery and short nails. Failure to do this may result in your child not being able to participate. If your child does not attend for 3 weeks we will contact you about her membership as we will be operating a waiting list and may need to give her place to someone else. Lewes NC is not liable or responsible for any injury or losses sustained whilst training or at matches.
